Profitable Growth by Targeting The Movable Middle

- A new marketing growth framework that has been scientifically validated to outperform reach-based planning by more than 50%
- A practical approach to identify, quantify and target the most responsive audience for any brand
- A profitable strategy to win over non-buyers who are more likely to respond and build for the future of the brand

Brand as Performance (BaP): Research Program

What is the fundamental relationship between Brand and Performance Marketing?

Program Overview:

- The Great Marketing Growth Debate series sprang out of this project with the goal to help marketers to understand the leading marketing growth theories
- Key elements of these theories will be tested as part of the BAP studies:
 - Importance of reach and mass marketing (Byron Sharp)
 - Customer centricity and the need to focus on the right customers (Dr. Peter Fader)
 - Role of the movable middle and outcome-based marketing (Joel Rubinson)

Latest Status:

- Study has been reviewed by over 50 marketers
- The topic of brand & performance compelling to EVERYONE, including every CMO
- 2 of 3 participating marketers identified: CVS & Molson Coors
- Expected execution in early 2021 (Covid paused the start)

The Great Debate Q&A

Top questions are listed below. To ask your own question, click here.

TOP QUESTIONS

PE Q. How does this work for financial services where "repeat rate" isn't applicable?
Posted by Pepper Evans

Top response:
Response by Joel Rubinson, Rubinson Partners
You have to specify a situation and estimate probabilities of "purchase" for that situation. For example, suppose you are considering new home mortgages. You need to measure who might be in the ...

JB Q. What data sources do you need to be able to target the 'movable middle' for a particular brand?
Posted by John Bell, NextNow Digital

Top response:
Response by Joel Rubinson, Rubinson Partners
When available, Numerator receipt scanning data is a great start. Neustar's segmentation framework is very strong for activation although others might have something similar. For non-CPG, ...

Q. Why was ROAS selected as the main KPI for success when many brands are shifting to LTV as a stronger metric for media performance?
Posted by Dan Wittmers

Top response:
Response by Joel Rubinson, Rubinson Partners
I would beg to differ that LTV is a stronger metric. It is certainly used, but it is a metric that has many assumptions built into it that are all contestable. ROAS is objective, verifiable and ...

Q. Can you share a bit about differences between categories of goods? For example, is this principally about FMCG or does this thesis apply equally across many sectors?
Posted by Janet Balls, EY

Top response:
Response by Joel Rubinson, Rubinson Partners
This analysis was heavily based on math that is applicable beyond CPG and would work with virtually any marketing sector. However, the data source for sizing and finding the movable middle would ...
